
VILLAS AT THE PLANTATION

PHUKET |

PEARL OF THE ANDAMAN

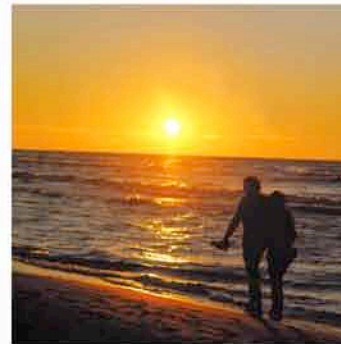

Close your eyes and imagine a place of striking natural beauty; a tropical world of soaring blue skies, lush verdant forests and palm-fringed beaches lapped by warm equatorial seas. A place where the pace of life is soothing - a place where you can simply just be. Nestled into the Andaman Sea, off the west coast of Thailand, Phuket Island is just such a place.

Phuket's entire west coast is spectacularly studded with white sandy beaches and picturesque coves of which Kamala Bay is one of the most beautiful. It is here that you will find 'Villas at The Plantation', a stunning development which seamlessly merges refined luxury with the natural environment.

A prime vacation destination, Phuket is one of the world's most sought after real estate locations. What makes the island so desirable is its rare combination of idyllic natural splendour and every convenience demanded by the most sophisticated buyers.

Matching Phuket's scenic attractions is a wealth of sporting and leisure facilities, from yacht marinas to championship golf courses, alongside a wide choice of global and local restaurants. International hospitals and schools are all part of the comprehensive infrastructure.

Located just an hour from Bangkok and with convenient air services to other regional hubs and beyond, Phuket offers total ease of access. It's all readily within reach, yet a world unto itself.
